

Thriving in Leaner Times

The economic shift over the past few years has led many professionals - and their organisations - to redefine what it means to thrive in the changing world of business.

By taking part in this unique, cost-effective, two-part programme, the rest of 2011 will be much more manageable and successful. This is because you will:

- Learn proven strategies on how to thrive for the rest of 2011 - and beyond.
- Discover a three-step process on how to stay engaged not exhausted in business.
- Gain fresh insights from a panel of entrepreneurs and organisations who are currently setting a new blueprint in business.
- Compile a set of specific tips on how to keep your focus, cut out distractions, and implement new ideas straight away - personally and professionally.
